

Bett 2010 seminar: E-learning environments

An opportunity to network with your peers and listen to a well-respected Educational speaker.

Who should attend?

Principals, Headteachers, e-Learning Directors, IT Directors, Heads of Departments, Local Authorities.

Seminar: E-learning environments for schools
Hosted by David Baugh,

Find out how Apple technologies can be harnessed so that learners can use authentic tools in their curriculum. Find out how this learning can be collaborative and how this learning can be distributed and accessed by mobile technology and by multiple learning platforms.

Time: 10.30am—11.30am

Venue: Hilton Olympia, London

Friday 15th January

Who is David Baugh?

David Baugh is a primary trained teacher with classroom experience of teaching students aged 5 - 18 as a school ICT coordinator and LA Advisor for Denbighshire with responsibility for all aspects of ICT and eLearning in 65 schools. He is now an independent trainer, author and adviser for ICT, working for a wide range of organisations. David has been an Apple Distinguished Educator for 10 years and is an Apple Certified Trainer.

David Baugh

Supporting your learning environment